It all devolves down to whether I think the T shell goes away in the AFF & topicality.

neg wins pragmatics

AFF wins semantics

if tie, AFF wins the
to 2AR analysis

BUT, can semantics be a route to the ballot?

Nobody has justified why / why not AFF should win for ~~winning~~ winning the semantics part of the shell, so it defaults to what I believe as a judge, and since

I think NEDs are bad, I vote AFF (anyway the round prep seems to control limits & of course)

I'm with you on competing
interps, but performing the analysis
was terminally defensive post-2AR
so you let it be a time suck.
while I don't think you did a great job on CP, but less of work
on CPs that substantively answer them. That's really bad when you contrast performance to the identity
internal-link on White Pass. 2AR strat
was a mistake.

Time allocation in the NC was
a little weak on coverage when there aren't alts and you do less than a minute on oncase work. I think you account for that in C-X and 1AR
strat, I just think the 2nd K would've been better served saying "reject singular/homogenic-focused narratives". Alt'ing definitely would've made your job substantially easier in this debate. Good NR.

You say CX checks then try to wig on RVTs. I need access.

You spend way too much time in IAR on case... not a bad habit but you only needed: institutional transfer, recency, and transition to extend case. Getting to the DA is pretty important because you lost the ability to weigh it on your Rob argument... considering the DA doesn't get a real impact that's crucial. I need the rob to move to a level above the DA to ^{you} you.

What's the impact to the DA, Duterte good? I really don't like giving you extensions on it with the hanging rob on the AFF... only reason it's working for you is because a misstep on the IAR. You get rewarded for ignoring bad framing on substance, so this might not be an indict of your own skill.

Houston Memorial AQ (Andrew Qin) vs. Village AF (Adnan Fatakdawala)

AFFIRMATIVE

NEGATIVE

Houston Memorial

NAME OF AFFIRMATIVE TEAM OR CONTESTANT

Village

NAME OF NEGATIVE TEAM OR CONTESTANT

The better debating was done by the ARR from Houston Memorial
AFF or NEG TEAM OR CONTESTANT NAME

Signed: [Signature]

COMMENTS & REASON FOR DECISION:

Impact to limits is ground/contestation/dialogue
Impact to PICS is forcing a IAR response

ARR

- can't not, suitable to a or that many drugs, motion, counts w/c only pro or at one
- can read with many ways is good
- neg able out words on the floor → have to be where to require to be (due to no reactivity)

Neg

- can't have to prep all 3 to matter what
- function (that) through ground, limits, how one is ams. Neg is able to respond well
- IAR response means no PICS, then it's moving

Vote ARR
on PICS →
ground as
non 04-3
neg gets allows to
generals @ least

COMMENTS & REASON FOR DECISION:

- bought arguments against the counter interp ~~on~~ on
- 0-spec
- legalizing magic mushrooms arg implication
- when new aff interp (2 shells in it got made clear enough for me w/ no wtr) was read, no compelling arguments for why it came first (didn't vote off this)
- aff counter interp on 0-spec was ~~worded~~ worded poorly into
- felt like In did preempt limits
- pics merging ~~that also~~ (also extended ground standard)
- theory is ~~not~~ not my forte in judging, I felt like the debate could've been clearer.
