Impressive 1AR. Try to give comparative analysis. You tend to just extend arguments through inck. In the 2NR make some strategic concessions & only go for a few args/flows. No reason to go for everything. Aff- don't be afraid of theory - their interp on the framework is abusive.

Neg DO NOT PLAY GAMES DURING 2AR!

For the 1st half of the debate, I had little clue what the aff about and yes, what the negative was doing. This was because everything read was one long sentence. I hadn't heard the aff before and wasn't sure what the c/p was doing and when Environmental Justice started or stopped. Have some pity!!!
I agree with aff eventually that regulation is the key to solve for the impacts (Brownfield is something different)

Although the aff has several args that they could win on, the 2AR doesn't do enough on any of them to answer the 2NR args.

On elections the aff's meteor ev is good but they don't answer any of the neg's link work. I like the aff's delay arg but there's no answer to the ~~the~~ "resolved" violation - even if I think the aff is better for debate, there's no resolutional basis.

On the CP the 2AR needs to answer the arg that only the plan/perm Q because they ~~require~~ involve action by McCain & Bush. The aff may win some risk of Canada or FERC preemption, but the neg's impact calc is better & the DA turns the case

IA: Split Advantages into scenarios and make the split clear. Don't ask yes/no questions, they can respond how they like. When they centralist 2A on 2 is new and not responsible and takes way too long. They kicked elections you don't need to go to it, need to extend more on cap and answer their answer.

IIA: You read contradictory card on cap. You don't answer the non-cap portions of the K except highlighter hat laptop. You cannot read elections from 6-24. Need more offense on Elections. A defensive answer on a cap is not sufficient. Your answers to key were not responsive. You completely drop offense on Terrorism and econ. 2AR mostly new and not responsive.

IN: other cap for this plan that can be better and has more net benefits. ~~Contradictory card on cap, not responsive, parties not clear, need to extend more on cap, don't kick INR prep.~~

IN: Block strat chooses the absolute worst way to go. You have concealed case turns on all Advantages. a cap w/ 1 answer and elections that is easily winnable. Correct 2NR choice, 2NR was good overall, but clear covered several areas.
